Navigating Data Rights and Contracts in the Era of AI and Data Legislation

08th April 2025 - CCT MOREGO

10:45-12:00 Leonardo meeting room & on-line

This talk delves into the attribution of rights to non-personal data as inferred or resulting from the EU AI Act and the Data Act. It highlights the relevant rights holders and discusses mandatory and suitable contractual mechanisms for data circulation.

The session is designed to offer a concise (and interactive) overview for jurists and researchers on the implications of these legislative texts, as can be identified and addressed under a practical view.

Speaker:

Avv. Paolo BERTONI
Studio CHIOMENTI
